The End

I just got back from San Diego, and boy are my arms tired. (There's a joke in there somewhere.) You see, there are a lot of people who like comic books, and every few months they get together. Sometimes it's in Atlanta, sometimes Chicago; well, this time it was in beautiful San Diego, California.

They call it a convention, and everyone pretends they're there to do business, but that's just something to tell the bosses back in the home office so they'll pay for the trip. No, the real reason everyone goes is to see all the new comic books, to meet the writers and artists of their favorite titles, and to spend time with other people who love comics every bit as much as they do.

It's fun to meet the other people who make comic books, (it's a small community, sooner or later you get to know just about everybody). But the best part of it for me is meeting the people who read comic books: the fans. You.

Sure, there were a lot of "superhero" comic books. I won't name any names, but you know the type. The kind where the hero's muscles are more important than his brains.

But no booth brought a bigger smile to people's faces than the one manned by yours truly and the other folks from Harvey. Parents, children, even the people who write those other comic books, everyone loves Harvey Comics. In fact, I have a theory that most comic book professionals first fell in love with comics when they read the Harvey Classics. Judging by the number of people who came up to our booth, I'm absolutely right.

But the best, the absolute best thing about going to the convention was seeing the looks on kids faces when we handed them a Harvey comic book. You would think we were giving away pure gold!

Would you look at this? I spent so much time talking about the convention that I've run out of space! So how am I going to tell you about all the wonderful things coming out of Harvey this month? About the great new Crash Dummies issue,(it's up to Slick and Spin to save Christmas when Santa disappears), and the upcoming Beethoven comic book, and the all-new Hanna Barbera comics coming this winter... well I guess you'll just have to wait 'til next month!

Keep on reading!

Dear Richie Rich,
I enjoy reading your comics. I got your address from Money World Digest Magazine. I think you should give Bascom and Cadbury a raise. My favorite comic is Richie Rich and my second favorite is Casper. I think dollar is a smart dog. I wish I had a dog for my own but my parents won't let me. I try to show them that I'm responsible by coming home from my friends house on time and stuff like that. How do you think I could talk my parents into getting me a dog for my own?
Your #1 fan,
Dana Dreger, age 9 1/2
Edmonton, Alberta

Dear Dana,
Instead of getting a dog right away, Dana, why don't you start small—like with a goldfish! Before I got Dollar, my dad bought me a fish tank to see how responsible I was. Of course, my fish tank was 500 gallons and my goldfish were made of real gold! So be patient, Dana! I'm sure you'll have a dog of your very own in no time, and soon you'll be as happy as Dollar and me!
Your friend, Richie

Dear Spooky,
I'm a great fan of yours and simply love to read your books. Mother thinks I'm too old to read such kid's stuff (I'm 14), but I just can't give it up! You're so adorable! You know I've often wondered how you manage to scare anybody by saying "Boo!" I've tried to do it. I've shouted "Boo" loudly again and again, but without any results. What's your secret? Give my love to Pearl, Casper and Wendy.
Yours, Gauri Dandekar
Maharastra, India

Dear Gauri,
To be a great "Booer," Gauri, you have to practice, practice, practice! It's just like learning to be a great piano player! It also helps when you're a ghost, but even I practice a few hours a day by "Booing" at myself in the mirror! Maybe one day I'll start a "Booing" school, Gauri, and you can be my first student!
Your pal, Spooky

Dear Little Dot
I love your comics. I think when you grow up you should marry Richie. I think the two of you would make a nice couple! I'm the youngest one in my family. I have a brother who is 23! His name is Scotty and his nickname is Bubba!
Love your old sister, Andrea Scott Ackerman, MS

Dear Andrea,
Richie is one of my best friends, Andrea, but Richie already has a girlfriend—Gloria! So Richie has Gloria as a girlfriend and Lotta has Gerald as a boyfriend! Sigh! Now if only I could find a boyfriend who likes dots as much as I do! To answer your question, Andrea, I'd love to have you as a big sister! And by the way, Andrea, does Scotty like dots?
Your friend, Little Dot

Dear Hot Stuff,
I like to read comic books—mostly yours! I bet you have fun outsmarting people! I wish I had a fork like yours. What do you like to do? I like to swim, shop and play softball. I am eight years old, but you can say I'm nine because in three months I will be. You are lucky to have a cousin like steamy. I think you are cute. Bye, bye!
Your buddy, Morgan Vernill
Manchester, ME

Dear Morgan,
I like to swim, too, Morgan, but the first time I jumped into a pool, the water turned to steam! Now I go swimming in the volcano, and to me, the lava feels nice and cool! I also like to play softball, Morgan, and when I use my trusty pitchfork as a bat, I can really hit some hot line drives!
Your pal, Hot Stuff

Dear Richie,
It's summer time! I'm going on to the fourth grade. I might write you another letter in the fourth grade, and if I do, my address will be different. I'm moving to Texas! That's why I might write you another letter—to tell you what Texas is like. I have a lot of hobbies. Do you want me to name 'em? I like cartooning, drawing, painting, singing, acting and dancing.
Your #1 fan, Carl Meyer
Davis, CA

Dear Carl,
I'd love to hear what Texas is like, Carl! In fact, I'd love it if all my fans would write and tell me about the state or country they live in! When ever I have vacation time, I fly all over the world in the Rich jet—but all that flying can get pretty tiring! So if all my fans would tell me a little bit about their home state or country, Carl, I could do all my traveling from my room!
Your Friend, Richie
